

Recommendation Letter

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Oscar Sánchez Huezca, who completed a 5-month internship as a Software Engineer under my supervision as a Lead Software Engineer for BCS Automotive Interface Solutions in the global R&D department. During his tenure, I had the pleasure of observing and guiding Oscar's growth, and I can confidently attest to his exceptional skills, qualities, and dedication.

Oscar spent five months with our team, and in that time, he consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to innovation, tackling development tasks with enthusiasm and creativity. His flexibility in adapting to changing deadlines and workloads was impressive, showcasing his ability to thrive in dynamic environments.

One of Oscar's greatest strengths is his proactive approach to problem-solving. He consistently sought solutions and presented well-structured ideas, demonstrating self-confidence and autonomy in his work. His ability to learn quickly and independently allowed him to make significant contributions to our team, often exceeding expectations.

Oscar's collaboration skills are exemplary. He worked seamlessly with our diverse and international team, fostering a spirit of cooperation and mutual respect. His advanced presentation skills enabled him to effectively communicate complex ideas, making him a valuable asset in team meetings and client interactions.

I strongly believe that Oscar has the potential to excel in any multinational organization. His exceptional qualities, combined with his passion for software engineering, make him an outstanding candidate. I highly recommend him for any opportunity, and I am confident that he will continue to make significant contributions in his future endeavors.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Gabriel Ivan Trejo Vazquez
